

There is no need to change the Telephone Privacy Law currently in place. The institutions in question have no need to unrestrictedly contact consumers and we certainly do not wish to have extra phone interruptions AGAIN!! Do not let current lobbyists cloud your judgement about what the consumers want. Thank you. Heather D. Hite